Photo Release:

On occasion, NJ Audubon will use photographs of campers engaged in fun activities to highlight our programs in brochures, camp nature journals, web pages, press releases, and other marketing materials. We've found that campers are excited to be included in camp photos and welcome the opportunity to visually share their experiences with others. No personal information about the child will be shared.

If you do not want your camper included in NJ Audubon camp photos, please fill out and return the Photo Exclusion Form that is available on our website.

***DON'T FORGET TO FILL OUT THE INFORMATION ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THIS FORM***

Code of Behavior:

Children are expected to abide by the following rules of behavior:

- 1). Campers must be kind to all living things, people, animals, and vegetation included.
- 2). Campers must follow all instructions of the teacher/naturalists.
- 3). Campers must respect the property of the New Jersey Audubon Society and its center.

Failure to comply with the above rules will result in discussion among the child, his/her teacher, the camp director, and the child's parent/ guardian. NJAS reserves the right to remove a camper from a program if the rules are broken and/or if a camper's behavior creates an unsafe situation. By signing this form below, it is asserted that the Code of Behavior has been read and discussed with the participating child.

Health Restriction Notification:

My child has the following conditions, allergies, and/or restrictions of which NJAS Rancocas Nature Center staff/ personnel should be aware:

---

---

NOTE: NJAS personnel will not administer any medications—please discuss with camp staff to make appropriate arrangements.

Parent/Guardian Authorization:

My child, _____, has permission to participate in all camp activities, except as noted above. I understand that camp activities may include varying degrees of risk and that, with notification, some activities may take place off-site and will require transportation. I further grant permission to NJAS employees and agents to seek and obtain emergency care for my child, in my place, if deemed necessary and that transportation may be provided by private or public motor vehicles furnished by NJAS personnel, volunteers, or third parties.
