

Wildlife Art.

The paintings of Linda Stockman.

September 1 to November 27, 2017 at the Wayrick Wildlife Art Gallery.

With a lifelong passion for painting, Linda Stockman creates detailed realistic portraits of animals and birds, conveying both their image and essence. Working primarily in oil and acrylic paints, she has created a body of work that exhibits the beauty of the animals in their natural habitats. A New Jersey native now residing in northeastern Pennsylvania, Linda studied art with several well known artists including famed illustrator Peter Caras at the duCret School of Art in Plainfield, NJ. She has won numerous awards in juried exhibitions in both New Jersey and Pennsylvania and has exhibited her work at several solo exhibitions.

The Gallery is open Tuesdays through Saturdays from 9 to 5, Sundays noon to 5 and is closed on Mondays. Entry to the Gallery is free.
The Wayrick Wildlife Art Gallery at the Scherman Hoffman Wildlife Sanctuary, 11 Hardscrabble Road, Bernardsville, NJ 07924.